Festival Planches 2025

FESTIVAL REGULATIONS

Purpose of the festival

The international student performing arts festival Planches will take place from Tuesday May 20 to Friday May 23, 2025. It aims to promote the work of performing arts students and to celebrate the cultural and linguistic diversity, dear to Bordeaux Montaigne University.

The festival will welcome eight student troupes. It is organized by the Culture Department of Bordeaux Montaigne University and receives the support of the Languages and Civilizations Department.

Conditions of participation

The composition of the troupe must respect the following criteria:

- be composed of a maximum of eight people
- be predominantly students
- optional : be accompanied by a maximum of one teacher

The troupe must designate a referent student who will be the preferred contact with the Culture Department.

The artistic proposition must meet the following criteria:

- belong to the performing arts: theater, dance, performance, manipulation of objects and puppets, body percussion, etc.
- be interpreted in native and/or foreign language
- be accompanied by a comprehension tool (sub or surtitling, detailed room sheet, etc.) in English and French
- have a duration of 1h15 maximum
- be able to adapt to the performance venue that will be assigned to it

Terms of participation

The troupe commits to:

- provide visuals and presentation texts which will be used on the website and the program, specifying the list of participants and their role in the artistic proposition
- provide the technical sheets and light plan necessary for the technical installation

- adapt to performance venues (the technical sheet of the venue will be send later)
- return the form "Cessation of rights to the image" signed by each of its members
- be present (or send a representative) to the various online and face-to-face meetings necessary for the organization of the festival
- be present (or send a representative) to the various remote and face-to-face appointments necessary for the organization of the festival
- be present for the entire duration of the festival (arrival on May 19 and departure on May 24)

Sending an application to the festival constitutes an act of acceptance to the conditions of these regulations by each member of the troupe.
