

80 pt

4,5/20

3 When the night started to arrive^{ps}, Nou has been^{tp} scared and
 4 touched his father's shoulders^{ps}. The man looked at him
 2 silently, smiling a little. Both they^{md} stared at
 4 down the hill into^{cs} the torrent where there were^{gr}
 4 no water anymore.
 4 Despite the night arriving of the night, they felt some pain
 4 in their eyes, and the wind were^{gr} hot and burnt
 4 their face and their hands. The man didn't walk
 2 very well, that's why he had to press himself on
 4 Nou's shoulder^{md}. Below, deep in the valley^{cs} water^{sk} were^{sk} dark. Mosquitoes danced⁺² in the air, looked
 2 for attacking children on their face^{cs}. A little far away,
 4 next to Smara's red walls, bats flew^{md}
 3 not far from the tent, turned around some brass^{gr}
 2 4 When they arrived in front of the first well barb, Nou
 4 and his dad stopped their walk again, to clean
 2 with attention each part of their body^{md}. Then they
 2 prayed for the last time, turned into the right
 4 side (or the night came from)?

J. M. G. Le Clézio, Désert (1980)

Remember?

I WAS

WE WERE

I WAS

WE WERE