

Don't let us down: UN climate change talks in Cancun.
 Cancun summit has gathered ^{gr} whole world officials
 as there is a pressing need to combat climate change. ^{from all over the world.}
 UN climate ~~conference~~ ^{gathers}
 If we ^{méthode} fail to mitigate the greenhouse effect, disasters will wreak havoc all over the world, especially in the poorer world, that already endures ⁺ floods, ^{gr} food shortages and droughts. ^{Green} Activists and charities ^{tps} urge for environmental initiatives: previous measures are ~~in~~ effective to cut soaring temperatures that ^{alter} weather ⁺ patterns and cause the oceans to rise annally. ^{trop fort.} ^{governments} Authorities cannot satisfy scientists' and ^{Vague -> pour un pays en particulier} environmentalists' ^{fears} attempts, saying negotiations are hard and climate change is irreversible. The real problem is ^{to raise} the coming of funds that ^{impedes} will impede ^{orth} an accord between the North and the South. Moreover, the US and the developing ^{W.} World ¹²⁰ fear ^{that could threaten} measures ^{ing} their economic interests.

120 words.

Adapted from The Independent,
 Sunday 28 November 2009.

^{méthode}
 Indiquez plutôt de quoi il s'agit.

Une très bonne restitution du texte avec une excellente maîtrise lexicale.
 Continuez ainsi!

15,5/20

authorities: pr un pays en particulier
 to alter
 drought => pas de s
 ineffective