

Courses taught in foreign languages

Open to international students

This brochure is meant to give you some information about the courses, their duration, the ECTS or their course code. Some information might differ from a year to another.

Even though the courses listed herebelow are taught in English, Spanish or Portuguese, some of them will require a minimum of B1/B2 in French (translation or grammar courses for example). International students must be aware that some explanations, complementary information or instructions might be given in French at the beginning or at the end of the class.

Bachelor of English studies: Students are expected to have at least a B2 level in English.

Bachelor of Spanish studies: please note that a B1 level in Spanish is required in order to follow courses given in Spanish.

Bachelor of Portuguese studies: international students are expected to have at least a B1 level in French to follow courses taught in French and Portuguese. For course only taught in Portuguese, the expected level of Portuguese is as follows:

- 1st year courses accept beginners (A1/A2 level)
- 2nd year: A2/B1 level
- 3rd year: B1/B1+ level

Master of English studies: seminars have very limited capacity. International students must be aware of this limited capacity when applying. Students are expected to have at least a B2 level in English.

Lecture periods:

- Winter semester from September to December
- Spring semester from January to May
